a message to the People

what you know, teach what you don't know, learn

The people have a natural enthusiasm for learning and knowledge. But through our lives this enthusiasm and spirit has always been dealt a reactionary blow. The primary function of the capitalist schools, churches, radios, TV's and newspapers is to keep us misinformed and uninformed in what's coming down. This process has continued for generations. It makes us weak and confused. And that's the reason why many people older than us are so far out of line when it comes to understanding reality.

Schools teach us lies and distortions. Schools refuse to let people reach their full human potential. They do this by confining knowledge to separate and specialized things. Never teaching us to make connections. We are not taught that all things relate to each other. The schools also deny us our self respect by teaching us about the Henry Fords and George Washingtons, but never about our own history— the history of Women's struggles, slave revolts, militant labor fights and world wide revolution. We can't understand the history of the people of the world without understanding how they've been oppressed and exploited by capitalism and Imperialism. We can't serve the people by studying a trade or skill such as electronics without understanding what its used for, who it effects, who profits and who gets hurt.

The schools concsiously divide the people from kindergarten on, they have encouraged competitive, racist "capitalism in the classroom." They have created brown nosers (from kissing ass), by forcing kids into a "I can out-answer you" bag, looking for special favors from the teacher and later the boss. They have kept us from working together by keeping us from learning together and from each other.

Schools further make it difficult for us to work together by forcing bullshit discipline and authority on us— "stand up straight, because I said so." Our rebellion against this discipline and authority is a good thing. But it also makes it hard to understand that we must discipline ourselves and each other in a revolutionary manner in order to take care of revolutionary business.

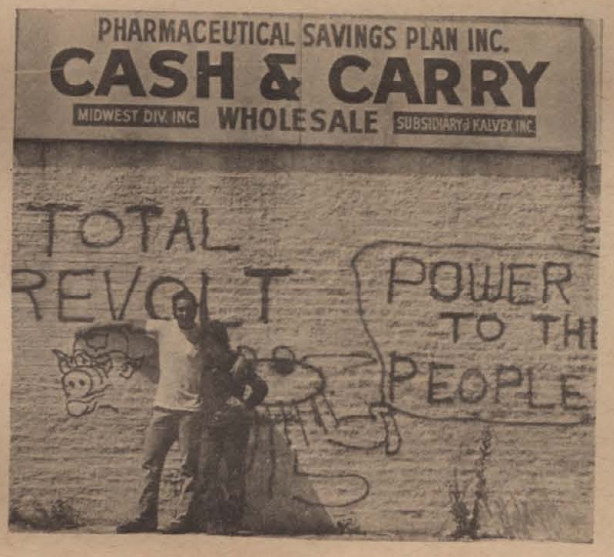
The brothers and sisters of today are more aware and much hipper as to what's coming down. We refuse to have our minds bent out of shape. So we're down on schools. We reject them, they are not legitimate in the hearts and minds of the people. Yet, too often in rejecting the schools, brothers and sisters tend to reject knowledge and learning. To do so hurts the people, for to make the revolution we must study and learn— TO BUILD THE WORLD'S TOMORROW.

We are about stopping the pig, serving the people and seizing the power— socialism for the people. STP. to do it, we must be prepared: ideologically— knowing what we want and how we're going to get it; militarily— trained in the military and physical arts of warfare and self-defense; and materially— having necessary and basic resources and skills like mechanics, printing, electronics, chemistry, etc. With the correct revolutionary ideology, these skills are used in a revolutionary manner to serve the people instead of the rich.

We must study and learn in order to serve the people. Revolutionaries are always among the people— the brothers and sisters in the neighborhoods, schools, prisons, at work and in the service. We must have our ideas and raps together because we are doing an extremely important revolutionary task; we are building people's consciousness (awareness of what is and what should be) and bringing the people together. We are asked many questions, and the people want and deserve real answers. We must also learn from the people as they learn from us. Even when their is a heavy argument, people go away thinking carefully about what was said. If we can't deal with something, we must prepare to deal with it the next time. We must listen to the people, help break down the reactionary ideas forced on them, and help encourage their natural revolutionary ideas to emerge.

We will learn to [illegible] experiences of people's revolutions around the world, by reading the ideas and experiences of Che, Fidel, Chairman Mao, Ho Chi Minh, Kim Il Sung (North Korea's leader), Lenin and of Marx, and many others who've listened and learned from the people and emerged as the people's trusted leaders. When we look at China, Cuba, Vietnam and North Korea, we are looking at their problems and goals in the light of where they're coming from. In understanding these places and people, who exist despite the efforts of the fascist US government, we can correct the mistaken ideas about socialism that have been forced on our people. When someone says that in Cuba people have to stand in line for free food, we can educate them to the fact that before the revolution, people waited a lifetime for food, and they died waiting at very young ages.

These revolutionaries, like revolutionaries throughout the world, started with nothing but ideas and a few people. They turned early defeats into victory. They moved on up. So it is here in America. Our revolutionary experiences will be unique, our own, but they will be part of the world revolution. The people of the world are one. The revolutionaries of America are the allies of revolutionaries throughout the world, they are our allies. Through learning of their experiences, we supplement our own, always learning in order to build our part of the world revolution.



JAILBREAK!

IN FIVE NEW YORK JAILS, PRISONERS LOCKED UP GUARDS AS HOSTAGES. THEY REFUSED TO LET THEM GO UNTIL THE DEMANDS FOR BETTER COURTS AND JAILS WERE CONSIDERED.

Prisons--juvenile, adult and any others--must be emptied and destroyed. People there are victims of our imperfect society. A society that has nothing to offer and whose only reaction to things and people they don't understand is to destroy. We must realize that these people are being tortured and exploited daily and constantly. I know. I've seen it. I've been through it.

My Dad told me recently they are not supposed to torture prisoners every day in jail. I said "Oh Yeah?" He said corporal punishment died out in the 19th century, and it died out in the sociology books in the early 50's. But I thought we were supposed to be punished because this is what we got every day. I didn't even know we were supposed to be rehabilitated.

For some it starts very young. They know their teachers are full of crap or their parents can't get along due to pressures in our society that thrives on fucking over and exploiting people. The youth knows something is wrong. What it is he or she can't say, because all they're used to is this sick society. You are your surroundings. Or what your mind eats. Trouble starts in many ways, but mainly in school and at home. It could be an incomplete family or teachers reacting in their typical sadistic manner. It's hard on teachers. They always end up fucked up, many sadistically unbalanced because who else can cope with 30 or 40 youths?

Just imagine having to run down, lock up and actually force into the street these cats who don't want to have their minds fucked with. So they finally trap the youth. They go through the Amerikan dream that has been fucking with their mind for years now. The truant officers, principals, teachers, judges, bailiffs and all other dogs that threaten, abuse and shame.

OK, dig, many of you have gone through the same shit: could be broken or bad home, no money, too much static, bullshit and people branding and catagorizing you every step you make so the kid says, "Fuck you, swine ass dogs! I ain't got no fucking house in the suburbs with TV's, cars, money and airplanes up the ass." He hits the streets. There are streets everywhere. Cities, suburbs and country. There are frustrated people everywhere. That is the crime that every inmate has committed. Frustrated by a society that talks shit about equality, freedom and other shit they don't practice. Instead they exploit, stab in the back, and destroy everything that stops them from the buck.

This is the example the youth who hits the street has, so he or she practices it. It could be through private exploits or gang exploits, but still it's the model that the capitalists set up. Take what you want and fuck everybody else. Many times even your own partners. You've got to survive in this brother-kill-brother society. Okay, so you want some good times. Something the dogs neglected to provide while they were bleeding your parents and friends. So you rob. The only thing you can do. Try to work and you get fucked over and a lot of static. You make a hit. Many times this hit will be someone not much richer than you. They too have been bled. So you fuck around and get away, and have your good times. If not you hit the juvenile court system. Here is where you meet some of the most corrupt, sadistic bunch of perverts in your life. And your life will revolve around these people as long as they can keep their greedy hands on you.

Now when you enter these courts you may have one of the following counts against you: 1. non-white; 2. young; 3. poor. If you are one, two or all three of these forget it. You had it from the git-go. If you are fairly wealthy you will get out without even parting from your money.

Alright, so you go through the shit with the fucked up pig force perverts. You go through the shit with the bored judge who can't be bothered with young people. He's waiting to hop in his Cadillac so he can drive out to his $50,000 yacht or his "private club" golf course with all the doctors, business men, lawyers, and other people who just got back from their "private" cottages up in the wood they "own."

You fucked up. You took up his time. Now make your own. You enter the world of Parental, Audy Home, Joliet, St. Charles or various camps; Sheridan, Menard, Pontiac; the list is endless: The more institutions you go to, the further in you get.

Now for Audy Home: You're in a place which is overcrowded, the staff is not trained; they are perverts from the git and get; they get fun out of torturing ,intimidating, ridiculing you and teaching you to hate and get more frustrated. They do this because they themselves are so fucked up, so frustrated, so hateful, that this is the only kind of job they can get; teaching youth how to hate. Because they have been fucked over by society, they get twisted and take revenge on the inmates.

ALL PRISONERS ARE POLITICAL PRISONERS

You bounce around Audy Home and Parental for awhile getting deeper and more screwed up as you go. You rebel against this unfair racist society again and you end up in Joliet. Nothing but TV in the day-room, gym, cells and security. Security, that is something that keeps you off the visitors when they come to see the animals in jail.

Now you've got a choice of a few things (unless you are a girl, then you go straight to Geneva...I haven't been there) some camp, St. Charles, and sometimes Sheridan. I'll explain about Sheridan later. Say you go home. Cool. You'll probably be back. You might go to camp. Cool. You can cut out easy there. There is also St. Charles. That is where the majority goes. St. Charles is a place where you learn racism, favoritism, capitalism and perfected torture. When I left for the last time they were getting nine hundred in a place with the capacity of 550.

Here is a place where the staff is so used to torture that is comes natural. It is accepted and made a real fun game...to pass the time. The gym teachers use plastic hockey sticks exclusively. The people that run the "cottages" use rubber hoses, table legs, cut off fiberglass fishing poles, metal paddles, fists, feet, whole chairs tables, pool sticks and any other devious means of destructive treatment they can think up. This, and helping the youths divide themselves up. The cats in Charles have gotten together like when King died. After we had race riots we got together. We didn't know what to do though. So we perfected our gang fighting techniques because you couldn't fight alone against the guards. I've tried. I've kicked ass. I've stayed longer.

You're out. You're back on the streets on parole. Bad scene; people threatening you even worse, more static, same place, same shit. You play the game for awhile and then again you say FUCK YOU! They say, "What? Who us? No, hell no, you're showing spirit, you are thinking! Fuck no, we can't have THAT!" Zoooom back and forth, etc. This goes on until you hit County, Pontiac, or maybe you stop at Sheridan. Maximum security. Sheridan is where you can go if you just reject the pig so much that you can't take it. You're a stone fuckup or a murderer, a molester, a pyro, or waiting for the nuthouse in Menard. Nut houses are jails for sensitive people who can't take society and crack up. Many just turn into vegetables by the pressures. It's a pity some of the best sensitive minds get forced in there.

Anyway--Sheridan: now you learn to hate at the ultimate level. The KKK is rampant among the guards. They're always provoking the inmates into jumping on them so that the goon squad can kick ass and the "nurse" who is the biggest, fattest fascist, can put you to sleep for weeks on end when you are in the hole. Oh, yes, these shots, which paralize the bottom half of your body, make you not only sleep for days, but you can't eat, breathe, or clean yourself. The ultimate in mental torture; this is why there are many attempts at suicide. Many dudes are handcuffed to a hot pipe and burn off half their faces while they're drugged. The doctor and nurse have said things like, "They are the scum of the earth," and that we should all be destroyed. This is the fascist hospital staff. The guards provoke racial incidents. They provoke the inmate into jumping them so the inmates get two more years. I have been chumped into this trap a couple of times. I worked off my time and am now waiting for parole which was promised for June, 1970. They are fucking with my mind. We tried to organize. As a result I was put in my cell and let out only for chow and two others went to Statesville, and one was put in another building. They divide us. We can't get any rights. We must take them. We must tear down the jail and never build another. I tried to organize with my brothers, but I couldn't because they have been fucked up by society so bad they turn in their people to get out of that hell. Get together to free all prisoners, white, black, all colors. They are all victims of a bad society. Liberate land, people, and wealth. Get hip to Revolution. I've been rebelling twelve out of seventeen years. I now have found the Revolution. I'll never be trapped by society into exploiting or shooting another brother or sister. POWER TO ALL PEOPLE! SOMEDAY ALL WILL BE FREE! THE BAD ONES RUN THE JAILS, THEY'RE NOT IN THEM.

MIDDLE EAST

The Middle East, with its rich oil fields and the Suez Canal is an area of the world in which the U.S. government can't afford to lose control. Connecting three continents, the whole Middle East area is valuable to both the U.S. and Russia for military bases and missile sites. Neither the U.S. nor Russia can afford to lose access to the Suez Canal and they are both willing to share it. That's why the U.S. and Russia are pushing for peace. They're both afraid that they'll lose the control they already have.

Fighting and war has been going on for a long time. There are many countries involved and many different opinions as to the solution. Many people think it is a problem of Arabs vs. the Jews, But, neither Arabs nor Jews are of a single point of view and we can never judge people by their race or religion.

Zionism is the philosophy that Palestine should be a Jewish state solely run by the Jews and for the Jews. All Jews are not Zionists and many Jews are even fighting with the Palestinians so that Palestine can be free for all people. Zionism is not a new movement. It started back around 1900 but never got much popular support among European Jews until the late 30's when Hitler tried to exterminate the Jewish people. The whole history of Jewish people is a history of oppression and discrimination. They were scattered all over the world and wherever there were no black people, Jews became the scapegoat; the target of racism and exploitation. There was no country in the world where Jews weren't discriminated against, including the so-called "free United States" and the so-called "socialist Russia."

Most Jews weren't that much into going to Palestine to live. They were city people who didn't especially relate to living in the desert. Zionism was far from being the ideology of the masses of Jewish people. Even the Zionists were not in agreement. Many Zionists saw a Jewish state as an opportunity to start socialism. It was those people who started the Kibbutz, a communal farm. Others were more into the religious thing while many other Zionists had more typical capitalist ideals. But basically what happened was that the Jewish people had been fucked over for so long that they came to expect it. And after experiencing the genocide by the Nazis, they were so paranoid about it happening again that they felt it necessary to have complete control of Palestine which meant they would oppress the Arabs in the same way that Jews had been oppressed for thousands of years. They could justify anything that they did by saying that they deserved whatever they could get after all the suffering that they'd been through.

In 1948, the United States and Great Britain got together and decided that it was okay to take half of the nation of Palestine away and call it Israel. A lot of American Jews felt it was a just reparation for the genocide committed by the Nazis. It was formed as a religious state, much like the Catholic religious states of the Middle Ages. Hebrew, which few Jews could even speak, became the official language. But Israel became a country that would only meet the needs of the Jews and because the Jews have been oppressed for so long they felt that it was justified. But what was most important was that it was an imperialist foot in the door of the Middle East. As long as there is an Israel there is U S' control.

After the June war of 1965 Israel took over the rest of Palestine and forced out the Palestinians to live in refugee camps in Jordan and Syria. More than 60% of the population of Jordan is living in Jordan waiting to go back to their own country. The Palestinian people did not take their exile lightly. Many resistance organizations formed just as the resistance organizations formed in France during the Nazi occupation. Because the lives of the Palestinians have become so miserable there is much support for the armed commandos. The strongest of the armed liberation organizations is the Al Fateh It's their position that Palestine should be a free and democratic country where anyone can live regardless of race or religion. Because their country is occupied, the Palestinian people live in Jordan. Jordan is ruled by King Hussein. Just the fact that the country is run by a king and his royal family shows that the government is reactionary. Hussein has allowed the commandos to operate in Jordan only because he was afraid of civil war.

In order to keep the Palestinians out of Palestine the US developed the "Rogers Plan." Negotiations were getting started to "restore peace." The only problem with these negotiations was that they forgot to invite the Palestinians. The US wanted to get together with its puppet, Israel, and the reactionary governments in the Mid-East and impose some kind of peace settlement that stripped the Palestinians of their right to ever have their land back. The Palestinians wanted to let everyone know that they are the ones to deal with if you want peace. So the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine hijacked three planes and demanded the freedom of political prisoners. They treated all the passengers very well and blew up the planes; bringing six countries begging on their knees.

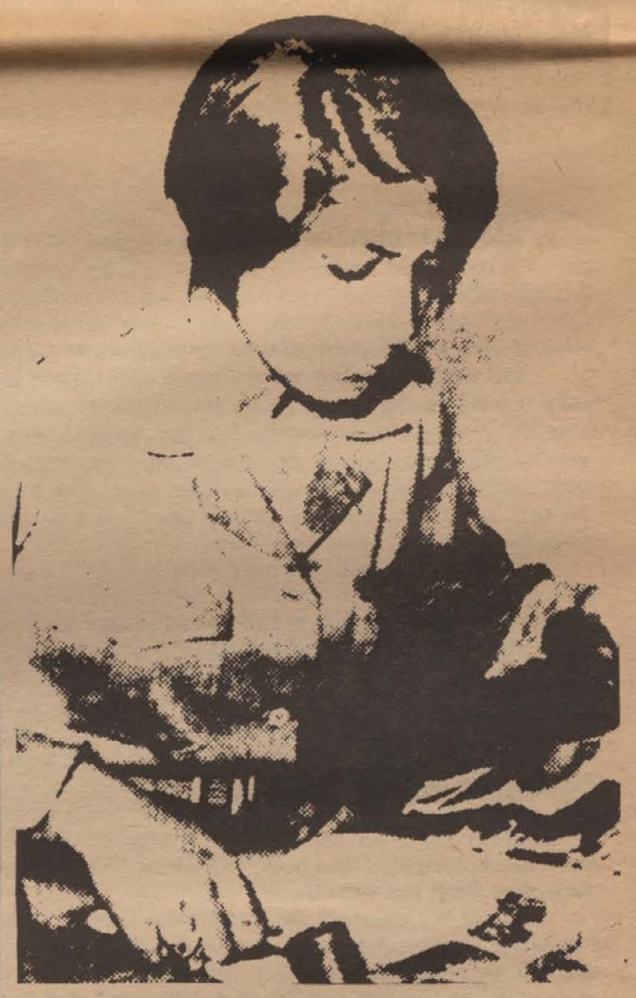
Basically, the hijacking accomplished its end. It dramatically said to imperialism, "Take the Rogers Plan and shove it." It showed that Hussein, right in the middle of what he thinks is his country, is powerless. The commandos blew up three planes and he can't do anything about it. He had to install a military government and declare martial law. The fascists who were put in charge of the government thought they could do a quick job and wipe out the Palestinian Liberation Organization. But they had a suprise coming. The PLO can't be wiped out without killing all the Palestinian people. But Hussein and his fascist cronies started to do just that. They systematically bombed, shelled, and napalmed the Palestinian refugee camps. The PLO held their ground but only at the cost of thousands of lives. Finally Yassir Arafat leader of the PLO agreed to a cease fire. He said it was necessary to care for the wounded, bury the dead, and feed the hungry.

The war is temporarily over, and it's a temporary defeat for the people. But the war is not really over. As long as the people of Palestine are forced to live in refugee camps, as long as the people are forced to live without decent food and clothing there will be the need for revolution. The enemy that they face is US imperialism, Israeli Zionism, and Arab reaction. The Palestinians are not going to give up until they have their country back. Phoney proposals by the US and bullshit negotiations will never achieve freedom. Only through armed struggle can freedom be achieved.

REVOLUTION UNTIL VICTORY

DEATH TO ALL FASCIST PIGS

RIGHT ON, LEILA



Leila Khaled was one of the heaviest persons involved in the skyjacking of the El Al flight 219. Leila became committed to the revolution in her childhood when she learned how the Zionists had taken the homeland of her people away from them. Leila is in an organization called the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine. For a time they had her teaching Tiger Cubs (teenage Commandos) in everything from weapon training to ideological indoctrination. When asked how she felt about women fighting in the Revolution, Leila said "There's two things I want, freedom for Palestine and freedom for women." Leila wears an empty bullet casing on her finger and says she is engaged to the Revolution.

Angry Talks to Our Brothers & Sisters in the Service

AN OPEN LETTER TO GI'S
BROTHERS AND SISTERS—

Rising Up Angry understands that your struggle against pig lifers and the whole imperialist military system is the same fight that we are waging in our neighborhoods, factories, and schools. It is also the same battle that black people, Vietnamese people, Palestinian people and oppressed people all over the world are fighting. The reason that it is the same fight, even though the battlegrounds are different, is because the enemy is the same- the racist, imperialist, fascist pig government. This government will use any means necessary to control the world so that they and their lackeys can continue to profit off of the exploitation of the people of the world.

And this is where you fit in. You are enslaved into military service to play a pigs role. That's a weird position to be in. Let's explain what we mean: you are either drafted or forced by the threat of the draft (or a prison sentence) to go into the service. Once in, you are forced to become the pig force of the United States ruling class over the world. The job of the military is to protect the profits of the ruling class, and you are the cannon fodder who does this. Now a lot of you understand this and are saying "fuck you" to the pigs. That's outtasight! You are saying that you won't go along with their program- you're fighting back, resisting. And that's right on. Rising Up Angry supports you 100%. But one weakness that we see in some places is that GI brothers are fighting only against some of the petty harrassments that the lifers put down on you- like hair length or dope. Now, it's cool to fight for longer hair IF you are also fighting for an end to the war in Vietnam or abolition of riot control. Because no matter how long your hair is or how much dope you do if you are still following their orders- you'll still be acting like a pig (just remember a lot of narcs have long hair- but a pig is a pig is a pig). So if you are a revolutionary in the service what you have to do is use the service as a revolutionary training ground to gain valuable skills and also to fuck it up so that it cannot function.

But before we go into that, let me deal with a question that a lot of you have been asking Rising Up Angry- What about violence? You see, a lot of brothers are really turned off to violence because they see what a bummer Nam is and how deranged the training you're getting in the pig's army is. What these brothers don't understand is that there are two kinds of violence- revolutionary violence and reactionary violence. The pig military teaches you about reactionary violence- which is used to keep the people down and to keep the pigs in power. Whenever we struggle for freedom they will unleash the reactionary violence without batting an eye. So if we are serious about winning our freedom, we've got to meet this reactionary violence with revolutionary violence. Revolutionary violence is liberating because it is the violence that we've used on each other for so long, and now we're turning that violence against the pig. Revolutionary violence will set us free because the pigs will not give us our rights unless we fight for them. So you see, we're not violence freaks, we just understand that we've got to be prepared to win our freedom by any means necessary, and as you well know, the pigs total existence depends on the use of violence. Rising Up Angry doesn't see the question as being violence vs non-violence, but rather are we going to win or are we going to jive? Rising Up Angry does not jive.

Another question that a lot of brothers and sisters have is "I'm in the service and I want to help the revolution, but I don't know what to do." Well, RUA thinks that revolutionaries in the service have a heavy responsibility on their shoulders and that there are lots of things that you can do. First and foremost, you should fuck up the military machine any way you can. This can occur on many levels- like if you're a clerk, misfile everything. Or you send grenades that are destined to Nam to the people instead and only the empty boxes to Nam. Steal whatever you can- ordinance, ammo, office machines. Work slowdowns and sick-ins are also good tactics. On a post, one brother with a can of spray paint and revolutionary ideas can do wonders. Offing lifers has also become a very popular way of fucking them up. Use your imagination, there are thousands of ways to slow the war machine down. Do it!

Another responsibility that you have is to bring the truth about the war and the military back to your people. When you know first hand about imperialism- people will listen. Write letters home to your friends, family, and co-workers- lay it out. As revolutionaries, our job is to educate the people and you are in a good position to influence the younger brothers and sisters from your hood. Do it!

You're also learning some important lessons about how to organize in the military. These lessons will come in handy once you're out- because organizing civilians is much the same as organizing GI's. Remember your successes and failures- then hip us to them. We have to teach each other.

The next thing is very obvious, but a lot of brothers aren't hip to it. Learn all of the military skills you can so you can bring them back to your people. A lot of brothers hate reactionary violence so much that they aren't learning all they can- that's a drag. Just because you learn stuff from the pigs doesn't mean you have to use it for them. We need to learn those skills to build our own liberation army to fight the pigs. Dig?

If you are hip to all of these suggestions and follow up on them once you get out, you will be a lot heavier than the brothers and sisters that never went in. That means that we will be looking to you to take on leadership roles in the revolution when you get out. This doesn't mean that you won't get some time to rest and party- we know you'll need it after surviving their system. That's cool. But when you're together, we're counting on you.

Remember we are your allies and we are all allies of of the revolutionaries around the world. All of us are digging your struggle inside the service. It's beautiful. Right on!

CHE

On October 8, 1967, Ernesto 'Che' Guevara was murdered by the United States Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the fascist Bolivian army. We've all heard of Che and even though the pig media has tried to make us believe he was only a romantic bandit, we know he was a revolutionary who helped the Cuban people win their freedom and then he moved on to Bolivia to help spread the revolution there. And we can feel his spirit - the spirit of a man who wrote to his children a few days before he was murdered: 'Remember that the revolution is what is important and that each of us, alone, is nothing. Above all, always be able to feel deeply any injustice commited against anyone anywhere in the world. That is the most beautiful quality of a revolutionary.' We feel this spirit because Che was a revolutionary leader who set such a beautiful example, An example that we cannot ignore and we should all try to live up to. Let's get to know Che a little better, so we can more fully understand what it means for each of us to become a revolutionary.

Ernesto Guevara was born June 14, 1928, in Rosario, Argentina, the son of a small time capitalist. He had 4 younger sisters and brothers. From the age of 2 he had a serious case of asthma and was close to death many times. His asthma was so bad that it caused him to stay out of school a lot, but he had a tutor so he kept up with his class. From his youngest days, Che always dug the workers and the peasants and hated the rich. When he was only 11 years old, the light and power workers in his town went out on strike, so little Ernesto organized a gang of kids to support them. And support the workers they did! They used slingshots and broke every street light in town, so the city had to meet the workers' demands if it wanted them fixed. Right On!

Che had to work his way thru high school and when he graduated he entered the University of Buenos Aires There he got into student politics and became a heavy nationalist. He played on a rugby team where he would get bad asthma attacks - but he decided to stick it out. After travelling all over Latin America in the summer of '52, seeing all of the poverty - he received his medical degree from the University in March 1953. He became a doctor so he could help the poor peasants who he had seen living in misery all over South America. To fulfill this goal, he went to Guatemala in 1953, where the president, Incabo Arbenz, was trying to improve the living conditions for the peasants by taking over United States owned land and giving it to the peasants. But the U.S. Government wouldn't let that happen, so the CIA engineered an overthrow of Arbenz and Che had to flee to Mexico.

It was in Mexico that Che first met Raul and Fidel Castro. He dug them from the beginning because they were committed to freeing their people from U.S. business control and to bring about a better life for the peasants and workers in Cuba. He joined them as a revolutionary doctor in 1955 and began training with them in the hills of Mexico. They were building an army that would go back to Cuba and throw out the fascist dictator Batista. It was in the Mexican hills that Ernesto Guevara got nicknamed "Che" because he always called his friends 'che' which in Argentina means 'buddy'. Then in May 1955, he married Hilda Gadin, a revolutionary sister from Peru, who was in exile in Mexico.

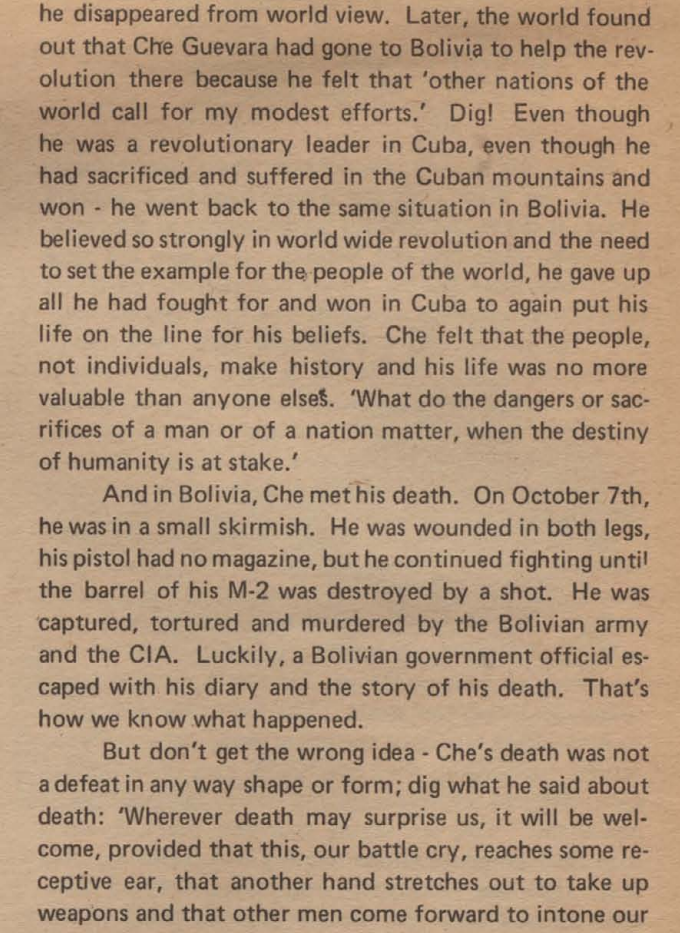
Finally, the day came - November 25, 1956, and the 82 Cubans, all revolutionaries under the leadership of Fidel Castro left Mexico on the ship Granma to liberate Cuba. After six days they landed in Cuba and were massacred by Batista forces - only 12 of them survived. At this stage, Che dropped the title 'doctor', because, as he said, 'we are all warriors'. During the years of fighting and hardship, Che was a great inspiration and example. He always volunteered for the most dangerous assignments, rarely took cover during air raids, taught his men to read and always demanded the most of himself. Despite his serious case of asthma and a huge allergy to mosquito bites (each one would swell up to the size of a walnut), he never asked any favors. (His health was so bad in fact, that he had been declared unfit for military service in Argentina.) So in the summer of 1958, Che was made a commandante, the highest rank in the Cuban revolutionary army.

Another big thing happened in 1958 - Che met another revolutionary soldier, a sister named Aleida Mach, who he fell in love with. He divorced Hilda and (even tho he remained close friends with her) married Aleida on June 3, 1959.

After over two treacherous years of fighting, Che's forces seized Havana's La Cabana fortress in January, 1959, and he issued this statement: 'The peasant is a man of good faith, of high morals, and of an unbelievable love of liberty. Men and Women of the Sierra Maestre and all the peasants of Cuba were the principle fighters in this battle. Now that the struggle is over, one of the fundamental steps will be giving the Cuban peasant the treatment he justly deserves.' It was the beginning of the construction of one of the most humane governments of the world - the revolutionary government of Cuba under the leadership of Fidel Castro and Che Guevara.

It was after the revolution won power that the world got to know Che as the spirit of the Cuban revolution. He became the international representative of the Cuban government. His primary concern was the creation of the new man and new woman, the socialist person. The new person would be self-sufficient, would be guided by a feeling of Brotherhood and morality, rather than striving for personal or material gains. The new woman and new man would be concerned with the whole of their people and not only with themselves. To build that person would require a changing of the economic structure to make the means of production be owned collectively and to have the economy serve the needs of all the people. And it would also require education, both through books and example. Che thought that the best way to teach was by example, so he sacrificed much and disciplined himself to serve the needs of the revolution. He held many positions at different times in the revolutionary government including Minister of Industries, Chief of Department of Instruction of Revolutionary Armed Forces, President of the National Bank and Cuban representative to the United Nations. He summed up his feelings about his own sacrifice this way. 'Each one of us will pay on demand his part of sacrifice...knowing that all together we are getting even closer to the new man whose figure is beginning to appear.'

As much as Che loved Cuba and his revolutionary comrades, he knew that for the new person to become a reality in Cuba, revolutions had to occur throughout the world. He said, 'There are no borders in these fights to the death. We cannot remain indifferent in the face of what is happening in any part of the world; any country's victory over imperialism is our victory, just as any country's defeat is a defeat for all of us.' That's why he strongly supported the Vietnamese revolution.



Che lived what he believed, so in 1965 when he felt the new person was in the process of being built in Cuba, he disappeared from world view. Later, the world found out that Che Guevara had gone to Bolivia to help the revolution there because he felt that 'other nations of the world call for my modest efforts.' Dig! Even though he was a revolutionary leader in Cuba, even though he had sacrificed and suffered in the Cuban mountains and won - he went back to the same situation in Bolivia. He believed so strongly in world wide revolution and the need to set the example for the people of the world, he gave up all he had fought for and won in Cuba to again put his life on the line for his beliefs. Che felt that the people, not individuals, make history and his life was no more valuable than anyone else's. 'What do the dangers or sacrifices of a man or of a nation matter, when the destiny of humanity is at stake.'

And in Bolivia, Che met his death. On October 7th, he was in a small skirmish. He was wounded in both legs, his pistol had no magazine, but he continued fighting until the barrel of his M-2 was destroyed by a shot. He was captured, tortured and murdered by the Bolivian army and the CIA. Luckily, a Bolivian government official escaped with his diary and the story of his death. That's how we know what happened.

But don't get the wrong idea - Che's death was not a defeat in any way shape or form; dig what he said about death: 'Wherever death may surprise us, it will be welcome, provided that this, our battle cry, reaches some receptive ear, that another hand stretches out to take up weapons and that other men come forward to intone our funeral dirge with the staccato of machine guns and revolutionary cries of battle and victory.' Look around you brothers and sisters, that's what's happening. When Jonathan Jackson went into that courtroom in San Rafael, California to free some political prisoners - he was carrying Che's gun. When the Tupamaros in Uraguay ripped off that CIA pig, they saw Che's vision of a new society. When the Palestinian guerrillas prepare to battle reactionary King Hussein or imperialist Israel, they gain strength from Che. As we struggle, day to day, in our own way to make a revolution here in North America, we look to Che for guidence. He was the example.

Long Live Che!

All Power to the People!

SHUT DOWN GM

1970: BLACK BROTHERS WALK OUT ON CHRYSLER IN DETROIT

344,000 auto workers out and it looks like a long strike ahead. For the first time since 1946, the UAW has struck General Motors. GM - the greatest ogre of them all, net yearly sales of 24 billion at 12% profit, GM is the American monster, the richest corporation in the world with tentacles in every pie from Latin America, to South East Asia, to Flint, Michigan. Workers in GM were eager to get it on. The afternoon before the strike, a riot started in a Fremont, California plant. A truck was burned.

In this strike, there is some of the usual issues--demands for wage increases, pension plan for anyone with 30 years employment and the demand for an escalator clause to keep up with the rise in the standard of living. This last issue deals with survival for the real wages of auto workers (what they can buy in terms of rent and groceries) have fallen $.17 an hour since 1967.

But General Motors is not exactly well known for its concern with our survival. It has already made it clear that the above demands are not acceptable. One step into a GM plant further shows GM's incredible lack of concern for worker's survival.

Speed-up going like a motherfucker--to the point that in some plants it is impossible to survive the assembly lines without a couple of tabs of speed. Safety conditions that seem like a sick joke--oil spills all over the floors where large fork lifts are moving, run down machinery that is known to occasionally collapse and crush workers. Many plants also have a checker board surface. In the skills section, the color generally is white. As you go down the line--where the jobs are rougher and the line moves like a maniac--the color of the check changes. The workers are mainly brown and black. Underlying this is the unending fear of layoffs and firings. In some GM plants, where the percentage of women, black and young workers is high, as many as 600 people are fired each month while thousands are on layoff for months at a time.

BUT TO THE HORROR OF GM, A NEW BREED OF WORKERS IS EMERGING—A WORKER WHO IS ANGRY, MILITANT AND FED UP. FOR EXAMPLE, THERE ARE THE BROTHERS AT ELDON AVE., A CHRYSLER PLANT IN DETROIT, WHO SMASHED WINDOWS WITH PINION GEARS WHILE ATTEMPTING TO FUCK UP A PASSING SUPERVISOR. ALSO AT ELDON AVE., JAMES JOHNSON, A BLACK HAD HAD ENOUGH—ENOUGH NIGGER REMARKS AND RACIST POLICIES. HE WALKED INTO THE PLANT WITH AN M1 AND SHOT TO DEATH TWO SUPERVISORS. TWO WEEKS LATER, WILLIAM DOWEY, A WHITE WORKER WITH 19 YEARS AT A CADILLAC PLANT IN DETROIT, PICKED UP ON THIS VANGUARD ACTION. HE WALKED INTO THE PLANT WITH AN M1 LOOKING FOR HIS SUPERINTENDENT. WHEN HE COULDN'T FIND HIM HE SPLIT BUT NOT BEFORE HE HAD BEAT THE SHIT OUT OF THE COMPANY GUARD.

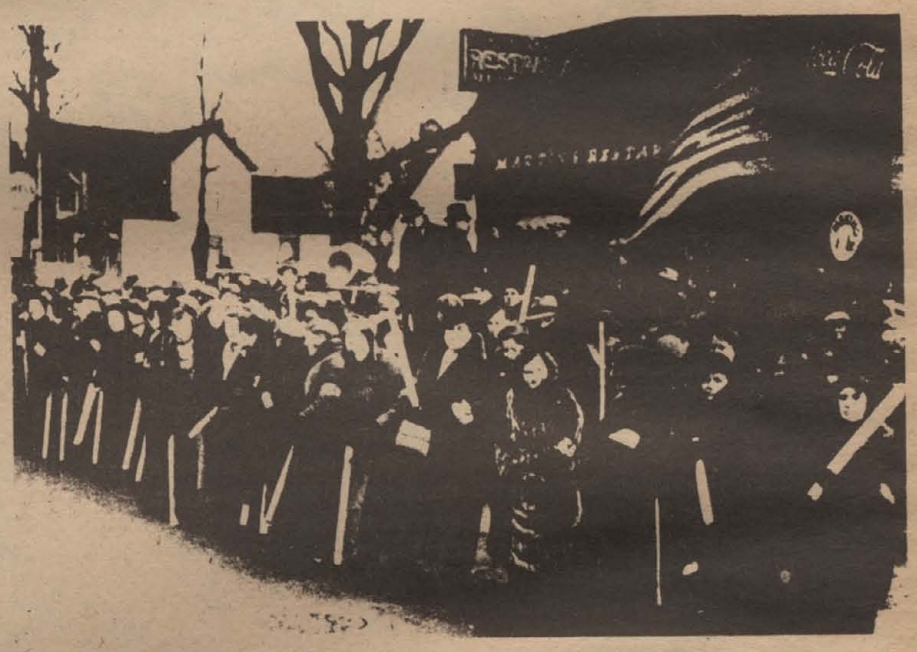
The auto industry's response is Law and Order in the plants. Their answer is more discipline. Specifically, GM is demanding the right to further increase speed-up without any consolation with the workers. It is demanding also that unions curb absenteeism, sabotage, and tardiness— all symptons of the "new breed." To crush any militance and power that we, as workers, still have, GM is demanding that the amount of time alloted for grievances be cut and the number of workers each represents be increased (In some plants, each steward already represents as many as 200 workers).

So the strike goes on and the new breed continues to grow. GM, Ford, and Chrysler are not the only ones who are uptight. The leadership of UAW is pretty freaked out too. For these militant brothers and sisters have seen through the UAW's game— the game of racism and cop outs to the General monsters that run it. For Woodcock and the other fancy assed pigs who run the UAW want a few things and they for sure want to maintain their power— but they don't want to rock the boat. The boat of GM and Ford, who rake in all the bread and leave a few crumbs for the workers. So Woodcock lays down the tactics— few pickets at the gates and heavy stuff going down at the negotiating table. In other words, keep the action away from the workers even at the cost of compromising worker demands. Revolutionary "new breed" caucuses— such as the League of Revolutionary Black Workers in Detriot and the Black Panther Caucus in Fremont, Calif., refuse to be sold out. They understand that real power doesn't come by begging at a negotiating table but through militant actions— whether it be sabotage or huge pickets. They also make it clear that there ain't no satisfaction when the capitalist pigs are still calling the shots. True satisfaction will only come when we control the shops where we work and the profits are truly shared among the people.

We in Rising Up Angry fully support the auto workers who are striking for their just demands. We say "All power to the revolutionary workers and off the fascist pigs!"

In 1937... we did it!

THESE UAW MEMBERS SET THE EXAMPLE OF HOW TO DEAL WITH GM. THIS WAS TAKEN AT A CHEVY PLANT IN 1937.



THIS 'RIGHT-ON' WOMEN'S EMERGENCY BRIGADE, PACKING 2X4'S, WAS A CRUCIAL FORCE WHEN THE WORKERS AT GM FIRST ORGANIZED. SISTERS, DIG UP. THE STRIKE DOESN'T ONLY AFFECT YOUR HUSBAND -- IT'S YOUR FIGHT TOO.

Ah, downers, there's so many of them and they're so pretty, blue and red and yellow sparkling in their jolly little shining gelatin overcoats. How you want to take all of them, all the time! Perhaps even all at once! Yes, Life's such a gas when you're strung out on downers, ask any downer freak--he probably won't be coherent enough to tell you, but he'll probably make some sort of appropriate grunt or gesture feebly with one or two of his appendages--maybe he'll even start a fight! Downers have a peculiar tendency to make you loud mouthed & fucked up. Hell's Angels for example, eat lotsa downers, and they're some of the most loud mouthed, buddy-fucking, obnoxious chumps we know.

DOWNERS

Well, what did you expect me to tell you, anyway? That they build strong bodies twelve ways? I know people who couldn't put together coherent thoughts for two or three MONTHS after kicking a goof ball habit, and that was after kicking! You don't speak straight, you can hardly keep your eyes focused, your coordination falls apart, nothing you do comes out right while INSIDE, away goes your heart, away goes your liver, away go your kidneys, away, away, rotten and wasted and you can't get it back, you know. Have you seen any old barbiturate freaks around lately? If the cosmic realization you're seeking is of the variety Jimi Hendrix found, go ahead, but otherwise, stick with safe drugs like reefer, you ll be a whole lot better for it.

STONE GREASE GRAPEVINE

BROTHER ANGEL

SIX PIGS ON ONE BROTHER

The pigs around Mohawk and Armitage have really been hassling our brothers and sisters. On Sept. 7, on the corner of Wisconsin and Cleveland a few brothers were rapping and the fucking pig along with club arrived. Pig says: "What are you people talking about?" The brother from Corp answered it was just a personal thing. The pig replied "What are you, a wise punk?" Then the pig hit our brother with the club in his chest. The brother then bent over in pain and the pig started smashing his head in, and then pulled him in the pig car. The brother really fucked up by now, barely made it up to his feet and slapped the pig in his pig face. The pig threw him in the pig car handcuffed while our other brother stood hopelessly unarmed while the pig pointed and cocked the rod and said, "Which one of you moved?"

The pigs took our brother to Henrotin hospital full of blood. Pigs get out of the car in the emergency of hospital and says "I'm going to teach this punk a lesson." He took off his badge and hat and uncuffed our brother and they fought it out. The brother fucked him up pretty good. So 6 other pigs jumped in the scene and beat the shit out of him.

The brother just came back from serving these pigs in Nam. Then he comes home to their America and and they fuck him up with their racist capitalist bullshit.

The next day a sister and a brother went to every pig station and hospital to find him. After finding him at the House they waited 7 hours after paying bail until he was released. When he finally got out, his head was still bleeding with one cheap mother fucking bandage on it. The bail was $500 and the charge was battery on a pig, resisting arrest(which was never made) and disorderly conduct. AND a $125 hospital bill. Do the pigs have balls!(they should be cut off)— Power to the people and DEATH AND DESTRUCTION TO THE PIG!!!

ROOT, KEDZIE & ARMITAGE

After our conflict with a gang at St. Gregories, a few brothers from the Bel-Airs, Simon City and Aristocrats, got together to find a place for their people to get together away from the pigs.

With the help of Rev. H. Brent DeLand, Director of the Root & Branch Community Center, we decided we could reopen the Root, which under the direction of the late Rev. B. Johnson, was busted by the pigs for having a shotgun and contributing to the to the delinquency of a minor. Since then it had never been reoffered to the brothers and sisters in the neighborhood. Now, with the help of Rev. DeLand, and a volunteer named Steve Davis, we have organized the 'Advising 8 - Northwest Side Youth Gang Board.' We have painted and remodeled on our own time and at our own expense. We offer, dancing, pool, ping pong, bail fund membership and consultation on gang or just personal problems to anyone 15 and up, of any race or nationality.

We have thoughts of starting a G.E.D. class for the people and are offering a neighborhood clean up campaign! Stop in and dig it!
Power to the Brothers and Sisters who get together!

C AND D

A few of the brothers from C & D haven't been on the corner too much lately, because they've been doing revolutionary work around the city. We did come wall painting, put up some wall posters on some schools, and helped out with the movies that were shown in some parts of the city. We dug the China flick that Rising Up Angry showed and say,

Power to the Educated People! Right On!

ANGRY BUSTED ON SOUTHWEST SIDE

Rising Up Angry holds regular political education classes in neighborhoods throughout the city. On Sept. 16th we were showing Edgar Snow's movie "China, ¼ of Humanity" to people on the Southwest side. The meeting was being held at the Friends Church at 107th and Artesian. Huey Boletto, who has sworn to get Bill Bonner of the Rising Up Angry Central Staff, showed up and had the building surrounded, and then came into the church and took brother Bill away. While the movie was being shown, the pigs were carrying out even heavier fascist acts outside.

A sister and three brothers from Angry arrived and were starting to park their car. The pigs stopped them, forced them out, searched them, and then hit one brother. A fight ensued between the people and the pigs, which ended when pigs stuck guns in the face of our people.

It cost us a lot of bread to get our brothers and sister out of jail and then the pigs informed us that the car had been impounded and towed away. When two sisters went to get it on the next day, they found that the Rising Up Angry volkswagan had been destroyed. The battery had been left on, coil removed, lights smashed, windows broken, wires ripped out, and dirt put in the gas tank.

It is clear that Huey Boletto and his fellow fascists are afraid of the people. They're afraid that white and black kids on the southwest side have had enough of their divide-and-conquer fascist tactics to keep the people down.
The Southwest Side Will Erupt In A Revolutionary Furor That Will Sweep Aside Boletto And All Fascist Chumps!

PEOPLES' BIKER IN ITALY

TONY THE TERROR

Antonio Mellino, an 18 year old right on brother. He drives a motorcycle and one night he drove wildly thru the rich section of town, scattering the rich old fogies and fucking with the traffic pigs. When the cops tried to grab him, the people from the poor districts marched in and started fighting the pigs. Three nights of rioting followed. A couple of days later, Antonio was captured by the pigs. The people have nicknamed him Agostino after Italy's world champion motorcycle racer. Antonio Mellino is a people's hero and the baddest biker around.

FREE ANTONIO!

LIBERATION AT GREAT LAKES NAVAL BASE

Brothers in barracks 213 got together after pig agents tried to divide white and black brothers and provoke a race riot. But the people were hip to lifer games and called a mass meeting in the barracks to rap out their hassles. The "riot" never took place, and 213 is pulling together through MDM and their own strength.

On Sept. 19th, the people and MDM held the "Great Lakes People's Liberation Festival" in Foss Park, North Chicago. The city first asked for one million dollars in riot insurance and bonds for the people to use their peoples park. Finally, MDM found a friend who put up her house in court as bond for us. The festival came off without hassles after the pigs pulled in their demands.

MDM is now having a full program of legal counseling and political education. We have a coffee house open monday through friday at People's Place, 1303 Morrow, North Chicago, Ill. Phone 689-2525.

ANGRY OFFICE HIT

Two female pigs and two male pigs came rolling into the Rising Up Angry office on Wednesday, Oct. 7. Upon entering, they were asked to show their search warrant. They didn't have one so they were asked to leave. They said that they weren't going to leave and they just wanted to ask some questions about a sister. We answered by again asking the pigs to get a warrant or else leave. They oinked some more and we told them that we knew nothing of this girl so would they please leave. Then they said they were going to go to Free City Exchange to find out about her. We then informed them that they were at the wrong office and that this was the Rising Up Angry office. Then they proceeded to take one of our brothers downstairs and question him. They said that he sounded like a lawyer just because he asked them for a warrant.

We followed them downstairs and found out that they were going to bust him on interfering with police business and that his bail would be $100 in cash.

Well, pigs, it was you that was interfering with the People's business and the penalties for that are much higher!

DEATH TO THE FASCIST PIGS!

CALUMET PARK

Pigs around here have been acting in their true fascist manner. They have been stopping cars that have two or more people in them, and searched them-very thoroughly! Sometimes, these smeasly beasts have been known to jump out of bushes to stop the passing cars. When any grass is found, they proceed to steal the car along with it! These thieves are enemies of the people and will be treated as such!!!
DEATH TO THE FASCIST PIGS!!!

CABRINI -- GREEN

Cabrini Green Housing Project is going to be remodeled into a more efficient concentration camp. 3 million dollars of the people's tax money will be used against them. 48 pigs will be assigned full time to the interior patrol of the project, including the elevators, halls and lobbies. Elevators would be equiped with an alarm system to warn police in the building when an elevator stops at one floor for "too long" a period of time.

They'd better spend some of that tax money for bullet proof vests cause Cabrini Green has made it clear how they feel about pigs.

HYDE PARK

Pigs hassle our people all the time since we have started to get it together. Brother Oliver has been cracked for burglary, assualt, resisting, disorderly and hassled numerous times. Pig Frazier ripped him off one night and took him to 51st and Wentworth, which is not our district, then brought him back with no charges after illegal search and a line up. They fuck with him because he is black. This is funny because this pig has been known to have accepted a $100 dollar bribe from another white brother.

It seems that somebody trashed one of Lustbades (pig realtors) cribs. The story in the Herald said someone ran a motorcycle around the walls, had splashed paint all over, and split out the windows, after blocking the door with the refrigerator. Tough shit, racist pigs. All power to the people who fight back!

ALL POWER TO THE BROTHERS & SISTERS who

NORTHWEST SIDE

Pigs Schriner and Kenned have been continually harrassing the brothers and sisters around Taft High School! After being threatened by the pigs, they wrote on a sidewalk that "Schriner Sucks." Right On! The people have told the pig what his actions have meant to them!

Then the pig told them that they better erase it or else! After they did erase it, the pigs stil harassed the sisters and brothers while they were at a park.

The 5 people that were busted on the bullshit charge of criminal damage to The Red Barn have went to court and were cut loose! All except for one brother! This brother wasn't informed of his constitutional right which then let the pig trick him into telling on himself!!! His sentence was that he couldn't go to the Red Barn for 6 months!!!. They will do the most bullshit actions in order to divide the people!

"THE SPIRIT OF THE PEOPLE IS GREATER THAN THE MAN'S TECHNOLOGY"

ROOSEVELT HIGH SCHOOL

Three pigs now are paid to run our lunch room! All these chumps do is keep us from coming in the lunch room once we leave the door! What the fuck are they good for except to hassle all of us! Chumps like these are useless creatures that have come out of a rolemaking society that creates many useless jobs as these!!! Our role as revolutionaries has already been defined and now our job is to run our school and to create useful jobs for people that will benefit the people!

SENN STUDENTS CONFUSED

Race riots at school have been happening again! These race riots divide us and stop us from dealing with the pigs. The pigs fuck over black people, brown, white people, yellow people and red people. If we continue to fight among ourselves, then our freedom is being delayed. However, if we unite and solve our difference among us in a revolutionary manner, then we will have created a strong fist which will destroy our enemy!!! Let's get it on!!!

POWER TO THE BROTHERS AND SISTERS WHO LOVE THE PEOPLE AND FIGHT THE REAL ENEMY!!!

FREE BOBBY SEALE, CHAIRMAN
BLACK PANTHER PARTY, USA'

ALBANY PARK

A few weeks ago some brothers and sisters left their mark on Northeastern college. The whole front of the building was painted with "People's War, Free Bobby, Rising Up Angry, and Mao." The next day they tried sandblasting the walls for 6 hours and the paint wouldn't come off.

The pigs called in a handwriting analyst who checked the writing on the walls with some old leaflets! There is even talk of a 24 hour guard outside. People there are just beginning to realize the bullshit that schools, especially colleges, represent. They are beginning to see that armed struggle is the only way to freedom for all oppressed peoples!
p.s. One of the security cars had "Off the pig!" painted on the side of it.

PAULINA AND BARRY COMMUNITY

Recently, a new PIG stopped some brothers and told them that he was going to be the new pig in our neighborhood. He oinked that from now on he is going to run the neighborhood instead of the people. Since then, there has been considerable pig repression on neighborhood brothers and sisters. They are stopped for searches while walking on the street; interrogated by oinking pigs; thrown out of the playground for sitting or standing in the Burley School playground; and threatened with jail if a fascist pig ever sees them in the neighborhood again.

These pigs are helped by lackeys who hide in their houses and call pigs to harass brothers and sisters. The P.B.C. will deal with all pigs and their chump, wormy lackeys. Pigs can jail a revolutionary but they cannot jail a Revolution!!!

DEATH TO THE FASCIST PIGS AND THEIR LACK–EYS!!
LONG LIVE THE SPIRIT OF JONATHAN JACKSON!

WASHINGTON HIGH, EAST CHICAGO

Over 700 latin sisters and brothers boycotted classes because of a statement that the vice-principle Mitchell Baran made. The statement was, "Latin American people are lazy and ignorant!!! This racist statement reflects the attitude of this pig and the pig structure that he oinkes for! On Oct. 6, 1970 the students held a sit-in at an East Chicago school meeting!!!

The end result is that the students were suspended and the vice-principal was temporarily suspended! Also, a small group of students hung a likeness of Pig Baran to show their contempt for him!

POWER TO THE ORGANIZED STUDENTS!
SMASH RACIST AMERICA!

MURDER AT COUNTY

(from the projects on Diversy and Damen)

Brother Antonio Crespo's family came to bail their son out of Cook County jail. When they got there, they were given a runaround by the pigs.

While stalling his family outside, he was told by pigs inside that his family didn't care about him and wouldn't bail him out! Later, this brother was hung and the jury convened and came to the conclusion that it was suicide!!! Murder is the conclusion that the people's evidence leads to, and the penalty for the pigs is death!!!

DEATH TO ALL PIGS!!!

NORTH SIDE BROTHER KILLED BY PIGS

Brother Robert Walden, 15 yrs. old was shot down by Pig Marvin Streske on Sat., Oct. 3, 1970! The story that the pigs give is that this brother and his friend were thought to have robbed a gas station; after killing Walden and questioning his friend, they found out that they didn't do it!!!

FUCK YOU PIGS! Time growing nearer for your destruction!!!

Thrqugh revolution, all people will walk safely through the streets!!!

Deepest regrets to our brother's family from Rising Up Angry!!!

26TH & KEDZIE AREA

Pigs have been hassling brothers and sisters here in Gary schoolyard and Lawndale Park in particular. One brother, Rich 'shadow' Guajardo, who just got out of the USMC, having served the pigs in Nam, has been picked out for special treatment. When the pigs busted 7 brothers on disorderly in the schoolyard, they claim to have picked up a joint on the ground. They charged brother 'shadow' with possession. This is reactionary bullshit, a set-up against our brother. We will stand with him.
Power to the People!

FASCISM IN CHICAGO COURTS

I was in court today for a case and saw a trial that really made me sick. I guess the law never did anything for the people - but the pig judges and pigs around the neighborhood always tried to make us think so.

Today there was a guy - Gary Mechanic - up for having a hunting knife. His lawyer said that by the law, he couldn't be convicted, because he didn't break any of their laws. Then the judge, Vincent W. Tondryk, said, 'I don't care what the law says, anyway, I don't like kids carrying knives.' Then he slapped him with 3 months supervision. Right on pig! Keep talkin' like that and you may have to really worry about kids with knives. Who knows. Anywhere - might be in your own courtroom.
Death to all Fascist Pigs!

love the people and fight the real enemy

LANE

The security at Lane has really tightened up this year. Teachers and their lackies have started to try to fuck up as many brothers as they can. The reason that things have probably toughened up is because Lane might be co-ed next year, which is outa sight, but half the school is going to be kicked out. The teachers are going to do their best to keep who they want at the school. Well, fuck you, you pig motherfuckers, we're going to do our best to stay because we got it together this year.

OAK FOREST

The younger brothers and sisters from Saint Damian grammar school are getting it together with the kind of spirit that is needed to make revolution. Discussions in class include Vietnam, the Sly unconcert, SDS, the draft, abortions, and so on, with the kids refuting the bullshit additudes of the teachers. Taking them on, arguing, and in the process educating the rest of the class. Revolutionary ideas, STP stop the pig stickers, and copies of RUA popping up all over the school. One brother wore a fist button to school, and a teacher took it from him. But the rest of the class forced him to give it back.

It's gotten to the point that they had to stop the pledge of alliegance to the flag because everyone threw up their fists and kept their mouths shut. The teachers are freaking———

THE YOUTH WILL MAKE THE REVOLUTION!!!

COURTLAND & WHIPPLE

One night about 15 people were on the corner drinking and the pig came and told them to leave. So they went up to a brother's crib, where they continued to party— some were sleeping.

Then came the pig and busted everyone. Their reason— "Someone threw a bottle out of the window and hit a passing pig," so says the pig. 7 brothers and 1 sister were busted. The pig can't identify where the bottle came from or who threw it but they busted all 8. 7 needed bond and it came to a total of $1,000, but we got it somehow. Now the people are waiting to go to court.

BEL AIRS, SPAULDING & ARMITAGE

Recently about 15 Bel-Air brothers and sisters attended a dance at St. Gregories church on the north side. Immediatly upon our arrival we were threatened by another gang. Eventually the pigs got wind of what was happening and decided to close the dance because of "a small group content on wrecking their dance." The pigs just wanted to promote a gangbang. But the Bel-Airs came to dance and one brother took the mike and addressed the people, telling them "We came to dance not to fight. If you want to fight, why don't you fight the pigs! We didn't come to wreck your dance, so you stay here and we will leave."

Outside we were confronted again by a gang who wanted to jam and pigs who wanted to bust. 3 of our brothers were busted and we left with an escort of Mayor Daley's pigs from the 20th district.

KEDZIE & ADDISON

Captain Midnite and friends got together the other night and put up 18 posters near Addison and Kedzie. Some chumps didn't dig it and ripped a few down the next day, but most stayed up— flour and water is a powerful tool in spreading the revolution.

To those chumps who tore down the few, we say: We'll fuck you up because the revolution is here and we'll put up our posters when and where we want to. For everyone torn down, ten more go up. Power to Captain Midnite and all other brothers and sisters who put up Angry posters.

GRESHAM PIGS RUN AMUCK

The pigs from Gresham District have been cracking down harder in the last 6 weeks than they have in a long time. 5 of our people were busted showing the film "China" at a church at 107th and Artesian, 3 busted at Leo H.S. putting up posters, forty people busted at Morgan Park H.S. for bullshit, brothers and sisters busted from 111th St., 95th St., 87th St., and 79th St. One brother was busted and inside the station the pigs recognized him as being part of "95th St." The pigs said they wanted to see if they could "break" him, for fun. Well, they did. His face was so battered I hardly recognized him when I saw him.

It's gotten to the point where some people are leaving the city just because of the pigs. This is a symptom of fascism. Rising Up Angry will continue to help the brothers and sisters fight the pigs at every turn, on every corner, in any factory or court. The pigs seem to think that they can shut us up by harassing us, tying our money and time up in court, and by locking us in the shitty. But the pigs don't know that each time they fuck with us the stronger we get. They will be hearing from us, loud and clear.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

A STATEMENT FROM A STONE GREASE REVOLUTIONARY

I, Bozo X, wish to state that I hereby denounce the Imperialist Empire of the United States of America. I wish to go on record that I whole-heartedly oppose the wars of aggression the United States of America is imposing on the people of Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia. I also wish to go on record as opposing whole-heartedly the fascist occupation of Puerto Rico, South Korea, Formosa and Vietnam by the warmongering United States.

The United States is an empire which has raped the world to build its wealth here. Not content with oppressing the Indo-Chinese and Latin People abroad, the barbarous rule of the monopoly Capitalist class has committed acts of genocide on black and brown people in particular. And all working class people in general, within the confines of the U.S. This barbarous rule has made me feel that it is my duty, to do everything in my power to help overthrow the fascist government of the United States.

Throughout the history of civilized people there have been those who chose savagery and barbaric tactics to side-swine the defenders of humanity. Among them, Hitler's Nazi Germany. Mussolini's Italian fascists, the Imperialist Japenese, Khrushchov and Brezhnev's social—Imperialist USSR and the monster of the world, the fascist government of the United States. All reactionaries are paper tigers in appearance, the reactionaries are terrifying but in reality they are not so powerful. From a long term point of view it is not the reactionaries but the people who are really powerful—MAO.

I feel US imperialism is the world's greatest enemy. I would like to extend international revolutionary solidarity and friendship to the government of the Peoples Republic of China, the Democratic Peoples Republic of Korea, National Liberation Front, Provisional Revolutionary government of South Vietnam, Revolutionary People of Albania, the Revolutionary People of Laos and Cambodia, Taiwan and Palestine and other Revolutionary Arab peoples. "People of the world unite and defeat the US aggressors and all their running dogs."—MAO.

I wish to unite with and support all revolutionary people through the world in their struggle against US imperialism. I am a revolutionary. The red book is my bible and the gun is my staff.

BOZO X

FULLERTON & PULASKI

The Gossage Grill has been the gathering place for local freaks and grease for some time, although we are barred from the grill, we gather in front of it. Thanks to the efforts of Don "Sweet Lips" Nelmig, the Embassy "Dime a dance hall" and the Milwaukee "De-Rail" road, the local Ku Klux Kops have imposed a no stopping or standing law on the local freaks and grease. Several brothers and sisters have already been busted on this law. Seems like the sisters have been getting a lot of harrassment from the local Gestapo, the pigs have been making nasty comments and putting their hands in the wrong places when they chase us away.

On October 2, the brothers and sisters got together and gave their community rip-off pigs some revolutionary justice. A place called 'Dime A Dance' got its windows busted in and some headlights in front of the place, too. The brothers and sisters didn't stop there, they proceeded to hit another spot of the oppressors called The Milwaukee 'De-rail' road.

DEATH TO THE FASCIST PIGS!!!

PIGS CAN'T STOP ANGRY

We have had numerous reports of harassment against brothers and sisters selling or distributing Angry. Pigs have confiscated papers at Bowen and Shurz High Schools, taken them away from brothers around Kedzie and Fullerton, Kilbourn Park and 87th Street.

They can't legally bust our people for selling or having Angry. They usually threaten something about no permit (there is no such thing), then disorderly, etc., trying to scare people, then come on like good guys and cut them loose after taking the papers.

Dig: Pigs are afraid of revolutionary ideas spreading among the people. In the future, don't be threatened. We will use their tactics against them. We are prepared to handle all legal cases stemming from sales and distribution of Rising Up Angry. We will win, and the publicity will bring more and more brothers and sisters into the revolutionary struggle.

BROTHER BEATEN, DENIED RIGHTS

On September 7, the Satan Angels went to Fullerton Beach to have a beer party. Lifeguard told them to leave and they says ok. As they were leaving, 2 Task Force men came there and told them not to come back any more; so Bina says, OK man, we're going. With that, Officer Parisi, Badge No. 9769, from Chicago Ave. Station, handcuffed Bino, knocked him down, stumped his face in the sand, kicked and beat him and he never raised his hands at all so he was arrested. He spent a week and a half in the infirmary at the House. Now he is at the House of Correction, has had 2 continuances and goes to court Oct. 8. Both times the officer didn't show up in court. Plenty of witnesses say that Bino never hit the pig at all. Now they have him on these charges: Disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and assault and battery. Two weeks went by before Bino's mother found out where he was. We can verify everything that happened at the Beach because we were there and bothering no one.

We took his mother and sister to the station to see Bino and he looked terrible. His mother asked for his bracelet and as he was handing it to his mother the pig took it and threw it on the floor, stepped on it and kicked it away. So Bino says, fuck it man. Five pigs also beat the fuck out of this brother, and didn't allow him his constitutional rights of making a telephone call.

MADISON MATH CENTER BOMBED

The math research building at the University of Wisconsin, in Madison, used to be the center of a million dollar top secret military research project. Not any more! Four brothers seized the time--and dynamite--and blew up the building, causing millions of dollars in damage. The revolutionary bombers gave a warning, but one professor didn't leave and was accidentily killed in the blast. Revolution is raging throughout the world, and those who think they can do their 'normal' work and lead their private lives while it goes on all around them, are mistaken. We can't cop out like the "good Germans" did, saying, I was just doing my job. We have to know the consequences of our jobs and if we're part of a network of oppression and exploitation, we must refuse to work and take up arms against the oppressors.

VIETCONG GI

On August 25th, John Sweeney, a 21 year old marine from New York, arrived in Sweden to ask for political assylum. He'd been fighting with the VC for 18 months. John told the press that he had been left behind by his company commander, in Nam, because he had malaria. His commander shot him and left him to die and forbid his fellow maries to give him aid. He was found 4 days later by the V.C. who took him in and cured him. John made it clear to the press that he was not a prisoner, but chose to be a fighting member of the V.C. He also said that there are many American soldiers who have joined the V.C. in order to fight in in People's Army against American Imperialist forces.

Ho Chi Minh with Vietnemese children.

HO CHI MINH MEMORIAL

We give our Vietnamese sisters and brothers our support in commemorating the anniversary of the death of Ho Chi Minh. Ho died a year ago on September 3rd, and his spirit lives in the hearts and minds of the Vietnamese people and all revolutionary people all over the world. The freedom struggle continues to win in Vietnam and has extended to Cambodia contrary to the statement that American Imperialism is winning by Nguyen Ky--who's spirit died the day he became a puppet leader and turned against his people!

Long live the People's War! Victory to the NLF!

INDIANS

"It is a sad thing that we have to bring guns out. But we are a dying people and we have to fight for survival, as we have done for about 500 years."

With these words, the Puyallups Indians of Washington State continue to struggle to fish where their tribe has fished for centuries. Now the government wants to allow only licensed fishermen (white men with money). But most white fishermen fish for "sport," while the Indians depend on fishing for their very survival. They need the fish to feed themselves For them, buying a license to fish is like paying to go to work. So, the Indians have bought guns and ammo to protect their right to food. They see no other out. As a group they have the highest infant mortality and suicide rates in the state. There is no way they can tolerate this latest government move to complete the annihilation of the original Americans.

Haymarket pig— offed again.

HAYMARKET STATUE

In 1886, many people had to take to the street in order to get an 8 hour work day. In Haymarket Square the pigs were sent in to disperse the crowd of people that gathered to protest working conditions. Someone threw a bomb and 7 cops were killed. No one ever found out who really threw the bomb, but 8 revolutionary labor leaders were arrested and executed.

A statue was erected--not in memory of the brothers (the so-called trouble makers at that time), who were acting in the interest of the people and murdered by the state--but for the pigs who were keeping the people down. Now last year that symbol of repression was blown off its pedestal and rolly polly pig Daley spent a lot of money to have it erected again. Well, dig it--a few days ago that same old statue got another dose of the people's revolutionary justice. BOOM! The Weathermen have once more blown it apart--this time in solidarity with the brothers who took over the New York jails.

Still Daley and all the chumps like him don't get the message. He's going to build that statue again. Maybe next time, they'll bypass the symbol and get to the real thing--blow Daley and all his pigs off their pedestals and out of their stys.

BOOM POWER TO THE WEATHERMEN!
OFF THE PIG!

Chicano demonstrators, led by Brown Berets on the march through Los Angeles barrio.

LOS ANGELES CHICANO MORATORIUM RALLY

The National Chicano Moratorium against the war in Vietnam was turned into a riot by the Los Angeles County Sherrifs Department. The pigs moved in on Chicanos standing across the street from the park where the rally was being held. The people in the park went over to see what was happening and the riot was on. Pigs blocked off the street, cut bus service, and used volumes of tear gas against the people.

Meanwhile, one person, Ruben Salazar, a well known news reporter from KMEX-TV, a Spanish UHF station in LA, was shot by pigs in the Silver Dollar Cafe, 2 miles from the scene of the riot.

According to witnesses, pigs told Salazar and five other people to stay in the cafe because the streets were unsafe--then they fired a tear gas canister into the cafe, hitting Salazar with such force that he bounced off the floor when he fell. Then the pigs said they fired tear gas into the place because they got a report of a man with a gun inside.

Salazar had recently exposed the pigs murdering three Chicano nationalists in East Los Angeles.

The pigs are trying to blame his death on the militants in order to divide the Chicano community and to have an excuse to capture some revolutionary brothers and sisters.

As one young Chicano said, "The one motherfucking thing I've learned from this shit is that the next time I come, I'm gonna bring a gun."

A pig that was messed up inside the tombs.

JAILS

The city jails in NYC are overcrowded rat holes. Last month brothers at the "Tombs" one of the worst prisons, revolted demanding better conditions. Although Mayor Lindsey and other administrators promised action nothing happened.

So now for the last 3 days prisoners have revolted in 5 of the 6 prisons in NYC. They are reacting against overcrowding, high bail and asking for speedier trials and an end to being treated like animals.

Also, the Panther 21 trial is now beginning in NYC this month. These brothers and sisters have "bogus" charges against them from over 1½ years ago. Now they are finally coming to trial. Many of these Panthers whose high bail prevented them from being bailed out, are leading the uprising. Also among the demands is that the Panthers are tried by a jury of their peers— their own brothers and sisters.

After 3 days of holding the hostages, and after some thwarted breakouts, the prisoners agreed to a truce but only after the courts started to reduce bails and release some brothers from prison. Again there have been promises by Lindsey. What will happen next month when nothing more has been done?

FREE ALL PRISONERS !!!

DEATH TO ALL PIGS!!!

NEW ORLEANS

In New Orleans, on Sept. 16, the mayor ordered a raid on the Black Panther headquarters which is across the street from the Desire Housing projects. Earlier that day the Panthers had discovered 2 pig infiltrators at their meeting and escorted them out into the street where some people set their car on fire. The pigs showed up in full fascist force and opened fire on the building. The Panthers were forced out of the building by tear gas and 2 women and 14 men were arrested and charged with attempted murder. Ransom is $100,000 each.

The community rallied to the Panthers support and 5 brothers being sought by the pigs are being hidden by the people in the projects and the pigs are afraid to go in to try and find them. One brother was wounded and had to have a tracheotomy (which is a surgical inscision in the wind pipe to prevent suffocation). He was treated by a people's doctor who wouldn't turn a healthy brother in to the pigs— much less a wounded brother.

The Desire projects is a people's zone. And the Panthers are the people!

CHECKIN' OUT THE TUBE

ROOM 222

Check out only if stoned. This program is OK if you want to see a high school that has nothing to do with reality. At the high school I went to, the principal was always expelling people (especially black kids) for bullshit reasons and he and most of the teachers were afraid to walk outside the school during lunch period. But at this place, with the help of a dedicated, understanding, young Uncle Tom, the principal is a "buddy" to all his students. Hell, you don't even see any pigs in the hallways.

One of the stars of the show is Harvey, that fat funny guy who seems to be kind of cool. But the thing about Harvey is he's only cool untill he cops out. Like the time when he ran for president of the student council on a program that said student councils are Mickey Mouse. But Harvey only goes so far and then his ass-kissing comes out. At the end of the show, after he's got all the votes, he cops out and says that student government isn't really all that bad. Sounds like the dooper creeps in school who occassionally act hip but when the shit comes down— they're never around.

So for a good chuckle, get high and gas up on the too unreal world of Room 222.

THE YOUNG REBELS

The scene is America and the time is just before the Revolutionary War of 1776. In a way it's a good show to check out— cause revolutionaries are the heroes and they're pretty cool— they're kind of hip. They also know what they're doing when it comes to guerrilla warfare— handling guns and explosives.

They do some cool things and some of the scenes where they mess up some British pigs are out of sight. But its kind of ironic cause in the show, one of the heroes is a black guy named Isak. He does a lot of heavy stuff. But chances are there won't be a show about how Isak and all other blacks back then in America (including those who did heavy fighting in the Rav. War) who were only considered three fifths human by our great revolutionary forefathers who wrote the constitution.

But compared to what new shows are like— it's pretty cool so check it out.

MUSIC: Til Five A.M., Sacramento/Milwaukee

Not everyone can go into bars and taverns, and not everyone who can go wants to. Mostly, you end up spending more than you can afford just for a couple of buck's worth of juice and the rental time on a plastic stool. You'd be better off having everyone up to your crib, and buying the bottle, which is much cheaper.

But there are some good reasons for going to a bar, and nowhere are they better than around Sacramento and Milwaukee (near Fullerton). The music. The music would be worth it if they served milk and crackers.

There are three taverns right at the same end of the block. Not fancy places at all— standard prices for beer and mixed drinks, and beautiful sounds at any of them.

The oldest band, that's been there the longest (a couple of years that I've been going there) and is probably the most together because of it, plays at the F&Z lounge. "FUNKY DOWN HOME" was once the Larry Dale Trio, now plus one. The bass player (Lori) and the rhythm guitar (Marsha) were a few years ago in an all-girl band called "Daughters Of Eve," where they did a little recording and a lot of road work. But they work now with Larry Dale, on lead, who has a voice you can't beat with a stick— and "Righteous" Fairley Sparks, who drums and sings some beautiful jams with all the energy and strength of the Woodstock festival. Some of the best soul, country and new rock you'll ever dig for the price of a beer.

Larry and Lori.

Next door at the Club Hello, you can catch a variety. Jams are on Mondays and Tuesdays (try to catch an axeman named Larry Preston from Dave Hinton's Group). And also watch for the return of "RC AND THE MOONPIES," now south for a recording gig. They feature a Bear at organ, Magic Rich Yarborough on bass and on lead, Ronnie Vance, veteran of many Chicago clubs and music scenes.

Just south and across the street is the murky "Mist," in it's sinister black-fronted building. The beer here is in cans, but the tunes aren't, and they do some cookin' with it. Left to right on the bandstand, Ernie the Bassman, the new drummer, who looks like Che and sounds like a machine gun, Kenny on lead and vocals, and Sweet Richie on organ and cowbell.

At any of these clubs there may be a couple of hassles, especially when they jam on week ends, because not everybody keeps his or her shit together all of the time, but they're cool places, they're People places, and the people can take time off and get mellowed there. They stay loose— many times, especially Wednesday and Thursday nights, you'll see a harp man or a horn player jump up and sit in a set. And they dig their music and their people. Dig them.

R. C. and the Moonpies.

ORGANIZING SELF-DEFENSE GROUPS

PART- 3 TRAINING

Know the enemy. At this point the pigs have three things going for them.

Communication - C
Mobility - M
Information - I

When planning any operation, the pigs' C.M.I. must be taken into consideration in planning tactics.

Practice - Practice - Practice - Practice - Practice - Practice -

In order to perform well in your work on all levels it is necessary to practice, the more you practice the better you perform. Don't think just because you read something you can do it. You can memorize a book on how to drive a car but until you get behind a wheel and practice you still can't drive.

The first things to understand before you ever put a round of ammo in a chamber are basic safety rules. 99% of all accidental shootings happen with guns that aren't "loaded" and/or by people that say "I'm sorry, I didn't know it was loaded." Therefore, rule #1 is: the first tning you do when you pick up a weapon is check to see if it is loaded, keep your finger off the trigger and follow the following procedure. Point gun away from area where someone could possibly be shot. If it is a revolver swing out the cylinder; if it is a pistol remove the magazine and pull back the slide. Even after you have unloaded the gun or see that it is unloaded treat the gun in the manner as if it were still loaded. Never touch the trigger unless you are practicing trigger squeeze (explanation later), firing on training ground or dealing with the enemy. Never point a gun at anyone you don't intend to shoot. I can't stress these points enough, they seem simple enough; however, people that generally haven't had any experience with pieces violate these rules constantly. If I am ever shot accidentally by some idiot it will be very difficult to suppress the desire to blow his or her head off, providing I'm only wounded.

The next step is to learn to disassemble and assemble your pieces, also care and maintenance. Due to the fact that self-defense activity will not be limited to daylight hours you should learn to break your piece down and assemble it even in the dark. Your life depends on it. So do it.

After you've gotten this down, the next step is to learn how to aim and fire your weapons properly. All of this is to be done before you ever put your first round of ammo in the chamber, the first thing to deal with is proper sight alignment. Sight alignment is lining up your front sight with your rear sight correctly. Your front sight lined up with your rear sight and both lined up on the target is called the "sight picture". The correct sight picture basically is having the front not too high or too low, not to the right or to the left, but having the target resting on top of the front sight. The sight picture will not always appear perfect, but if the correct sight picture is understood practice will bring improvement.

The next thing to get down with is trigger squeeze. That's right you squeeze the trigger, you don't pull it or jerk it, contrary to what ever you saw on t.v., trigger squeeze is a process of putting slow steady pressure on the trigger until a shot goes off. If you try to anticipate the shot, you will jerk and mess up your aim.

One other thing to watch for is movement of your piece which comes from breathing, which also messes up your aim. One method of breath control is to take a deep breath, let out half of it, hold the rest of it then begin your trigger squeeze.

It would be ideal if you could incorporate into your group a veteran of the pigs' military service. Veterans are of great value and assistance in helping with the above training also when you are ready to begin practice with live ammunition. When practicing with live ammo make sure your location is where you won't be hassled by pigs. Actual combat conditions can be deadly as a training ground. When practicing with live ammo. remember it is valuable. Don't just start popping caps for the heck of it; the whole purpose is to prepare yourself to be "a Match for One Hundred" which will only come about as a result of correct practice.

One thing to guard against is flinching. Flinching is caused by being intimidated by the sound and kick of your weapon. With proper trigger squeeze and breath control, you won't have any problems with flinching. If you have problems keeping all your shots in a fairly small group or if you have a problem just getting your shots on the target anywhere you are probably flinching. Have someone watch you as you fire and they will be able to tell you whether or not you are flinching.

The basic thing in the training of members of a self defense group is to know how to handle fire arms of all types,-hand guns, rifles, shotguns machine guns, etc.

The use of different types of ammunition and explosives should be considered also. Part #4 of this series will deal with some recipes.

MILITARY & DRAFT

The Rising Up Angry military and draft program, in keeping with our policy of serving the people, designed to help the brothers beat the draft. It also concerns itself with helping any of the brothers and sisters already in the military, who want to get out or get justice, or get revolutionary things going inside. Angry has access to draft counselors, lawyers, etc. So if you're worried about the draft, about the service, and want ideas how to deal with both, call us. The earlier the better, so that a time can be set up to deal with your problems and concerns as soon as possible.

MOVIES

Rising Up Angry has many revolutionary films available for use in neighborhoods, schools, homes, etc. They include films on the Black Panther Party, an interview with Chairman Bobby Seale, The Army, High School Rebellion, Cuba, Vietnem, Guerrilla Warfare in America, and many more. If you are interested in using any of these films for revolutionary education, contact the officer of the day at the Rising Up Angry office. 4721791

RAP SESSIONS

Rising Up Angry member will come to your neighborhood or school and rap about:

1. What Rising Up Angry is and what we believe.
2. What you and your friends and family can do to help make the revolution.
3. Let you know about revolutionary activity going on around the city, throughout the country and the world.
4. We have movies, records and literature that we can bring with us.

These rap sessions should have at least 4 people from your neighborhood, factory, office or school. Get your people together. Call us and let us know when. We're available 7 days a week and can go most anywhere. Together we will arrange a time and place convenient for you and your people. These sessions can be held on a corner, in a church, a basement, park, bar, etc. If you are in school and can encourage your teacher to have us come into your class, do it. Power to the sisters and brothers who help spread the revolutionary word.

PRISONS & JAILS

Rising Up Angry is cooperating with the Black Panther Party in providing free transportation for all parents, relatives and friends to visit their loved ones held captive in prisons, jails, reformatories, "homes" throughout the State of Illinois.

We want people to observe the notorious conditions at these institutions, to see the prisons in operation, and to go to various prison officials and let them know that the people are watching, that things have changed. The actions of these correction officials will no longer be hidden in the darkness or unawareness, but will be exposed in the light of political consciousness by the people

Contact Rising Up Angry if you want to visit someone, or if you want to help let others know about this program. Rides can be arranged to St. Charles, Sheridan, Vandalia, Menard, Joliet, Pontiac, and house and other places. You should handle visiting arrangements in advance, or call if you need help or information in arranging them. All Power to the People! Open the Jails! Long Live the Spirit of Jonathan Jackson!
